

Simple Control-F Searches

within current file (html or pdf)

Simple searches may be made by holding the Control(or Command) key and pressing the letter F. In the box which appears, enter a search term, then press Enter. You may also enter partial words or numbers. Press F3 to continue the search. In some applications, you can click "next" to do so.